Volunteer Position Description

Position Title: Science Presenter
Department: Museum Programs

Position Summary: The Science Presenter’s primary responsibility is to interpret and present hands-on, interactive science activities to visitors. Science Presenters will also offer educational support in the museum’s exhibits. Additionally, Science Presenters will practice excellent customer service, interpersonal communication, and public speaking skills, while expanding visitor exposure to science learning.

Science Presenter job functions include:
- Staff interactive cart activities on a variety of science-related topics.
- Provide educational support in museum exhibits.
- Support and advance the mission of the Franklin Institute by engaging with visitors in inquiry-based interactions.
- Attend scheduled sessions, study materials provided and be prepared to interpret this material at assigned stations.
- Assist visitors in finding their way throughout the Museum, answering visitor questions and challenging inappropriate visitor behavior.
- Be happy, helpful, and courteous to all visitors, staff and fellow volunteers.
- Attend assigned cart or exhibit areas on time.
- General housekeeping and upkeep of department equipment and materials.
- Report problems to supervisor.
- Perform all assigned tasks.

Special Skills Required:
- Background in a STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) field preferred. In lieu of STEM background, current Franklin Institute volunteers who have completed 6 months in the Exhibit Facilitator role may join the Science Presenter team
- Interest in science and The Franklin Institute’s mission (In the spirit of inquiry and discovery embodied by Benjamin Franklin, the mission of The Franklin Institute is to inspire a passion for learning about science and technology.)
- Enthusiasm for teaching the public
- Good communication skills
- Reliable and punctual, with good attendance
- Positive attitude
- Hard-working
- Able to work well with children
- Courteous
- Ability to accept direct supervision
- Must be physically able to be active for long periods of time

Clearance Requirements: This position involves direct contact with children. Volunteers must meet background clearance requirements before they can begin.
