

SERAVEZZA

— WEDDINGS —

Since its founding in 1824, The Franklin Institute has evolved into a prominent cultural asset for Philadelphia and is one of the most beloved science museums in the nation.

The centerpiece of the museum is the Benjamin Franklin National Memorial, with it's dramatic sculpture of Franklin made from white Seravezza marble that overlooks the grand rotunda.

OUR MISSION

In the spirit of inquiry and discovery embodied by Benjamin Franklin, the mission of The Franklin Institute is to inspire a passion for learning about science and technology.

Featuring striking architectural and design elements that reflect this mission, the Franklin Institute is recognized for being one of the most captivating event venues in all of Philadelphia.

From weddings and cocktail receptions, to meetings and seated dinners, an exceptional event experience awaits. The Franklin Institute provides an exclusive experience, through its collection of vibrant exhibits and expansive spaces, as well as a menu of flavorful bites and creative cocktails designed by Seravezza.

Curate a distinctly unique and memorable event with Seravezza at The Franklin Institute.

Philanthropy is essential to sustaining our mission, and bringing the Institute's mission to life would not be possible without our philanthropic partners. Generous donors and supporters to the Institute can receive a discount on rental spaces. Please inquire for further details.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN MEMORIAL HALL

Imagine your show-stopping event under the attentive eyes of Benjamin Franklin himself. As the centerpiece of the museum, the Benjamin Franklin National Memorial has been a popular location for distinctive events hosted by Fortune 500 companies, United States Presidents, foreign dignitaries and local businesses.

Dinner for your guests is under the iconic 82-foot-high domed ceiling and gold-gilded oculus of the Benjamin Franklin National Memorial. Inspired by the Roman Pantheon, the event space is dramatically framed by 16 marble columns and offers state-of-the-art audio visual capabilities. The new lighting and audio features can be customized to illuminate and enhance your event with clarity and elegance.

The Benjamin Franklin National Memorial can be paired with Jordan Lobby to enhance your event and seamlessly move your party from pre to post dinner festivities & provide additional event seating.
