THOMAS EDISON

Thomas Edison (1847-1931), who is probably best known for his innovations in electric lighting, held more than 1,000 patents for devices ranging from movie projectors to electric cars. Thomas Edison was awarded the Franklin Medal by The Franklin Institute in 1915.

© The Franklin Institute 2017